NOTE I - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of significant accounting policies of Family and Youth Counseling Agency, Inc. (the Agency) is presented to assist in understanding the Agency's financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Agency's management, who is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to generally accepted accounting principles and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

A. Nature of Activities

The Family and Youth Counseling Agency, Inc. is a Louisiana not-for-profit corporation that operates under a Board of Directors which appoints an Executive Director and otherwise controls and guides the Agency. The Agency serves as an "umbrella" organization for several family assistance and counseling programs, as follows:

FAMILY SUPPORT

- Professional Counseling A professional team of master's level counselors accepts individuals of all ages, couples, and families for a wide variety of counseling services and state-of-the-art therapies. Sliding-scale fees, special contract arrangements, or managed care services help clients attain improved mental health and individual/family stability through brief consultative service, short-term therapy, or longer-term counseling programs.
- Domestic Violence Intervention Documented, suspected, or escalating violence in domestic settings is the target of the special 26-week intervention program for selected individuals. Trained counselors address the abusive behavior of participants who have a history of selecting coercive, inappropriate communication strategies when interacting with their dependents. Twohour group meetings on a weekly basis bring together several individuals who have similar goals, making this treatment opportunity an excellent educational/life changing therapy option.
- Mediation Mediation is an alternative, dispute-resolution process through which separated and divorcing parents clarify and negotiate their most painful and difficult parenting disputes. As advocates for healthy, shared parenting, trained mediators accept court-ordered, private, and selfreferred parents for this alternative to the competitive-adversarial method of ending custody disputes. The mediation process culminates in a written document, which the legal system recognizes as the official child custody arrangement.
- Parenting The difference between parenting wisely and parenting "hopefully" is appreciated fully when participants become involved in any of the parenting classes, parenting lectures, or parenting focus groups offered on a regular basis. Counselors who not only work with parents and children in their counseling practice, but also appreciate the value of group learning and shared problem-solving, serve as teachers, facilitators, and guest lecturers in this worthy program.
- Human Services Response Institute (HSRI) HSRI was originated to address the consequences of any major disaster or emergency faced by the community. HSRI personnel provide professional disaster related services including intensive case management to develop long-range plans for evacuees; family budgeting and financial management; mental health counseling; job development and housing and relocation assistance. In addition, HSRI personnel promote collaboration and partnerships on behalf of people affected by emergencies and disaster, and work with government official in procurement of financial and non-financial resources to strengthen current infrastructure.

• Autism Society - The Autism Society promotes lifelong access and opportunities for persons with the autism spectrum and their families, to be fully included, participating members of their communities through advocacy, public awareness, education, and research related to voluntarism as it develops and fosters family stability.

YOUTH LEADERSHIP

- Youth Leadership Development Designed with the overall goal of minimizing drug use among young people, participants in Teen Leadership will explore leadership principles, success and positive attitude, self-respect and responsibility, the varying dynamics of communication, conflict prevention and negotiation, and much more. Young people are eligible to join groups of twelve who meet for 90 minutes once a week for six weeks and participate in experiential learning opportunities, the first phase of the program. Phase 2 includes the opportunity for community service.
- Learning Circles This program, sensitive to girl's needs, encourages and promotes self-respect and responsibility through leadership skills development. Program participants have a chance to explore gender sensitive issues such as communications, boundaries, roles, confidence and inner strength, diversity, personal potential and more. The impact of the program is a reduction in early parenthood, prevention of drug abuse and decrease in domestic violence, as leaders emerge.
- Teen Center The Teen Center promotes positive social interactions and youth development by addressing current youth issues (substance abuse, violence, health promotion, early parenthood, etc.). The Teen Center promotes and encourages involvement and voluntarism as it develops leadership, social and life skills. The Teen Center is a safe place for youth.
- Leadership Center It is the purpose of The Leadership Center to offer youth a one-stop system of support resulting in open doors of opportunity for young people through leadership development. The right interventions at the right tie will give youth the necessary head start and skills enhancement opportunities in the area of education, life skills, social and physical development, emotional intelligence, and employment readiness.

A. Nature of Activities (Continued)

CHILD ADVOCACY

- Children's Advocacy Sexual abuse of children touches all communities, even Southwest Louisiana. Family and Youth's creation of a child-friendly program, designed to coordinate services to youngsters who report as sexually or severely physically abused, now brings together investigative, medical, and mental health systems in order to properly address this social dysfunction. Professional counseling, linkage with mental health and victim advocacy services, and multi-disciplinary team reviews, provides the necessary foundation for total systematic change – a pro-active approach intended to reduce the trauma and incidence of sexual and physical abuse of children in Southwest Louisiana.
- Child Abuse Prevention Professional staff delivers education presentations intended to prevent child abuse. Businesses, schools, churches, civic groups and others interested in child abuse prevention programs need only to call and schedule presentations.
- Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) Each year, many children in southwest Louisiana enter into complex social welfare and juvenile court proceedings through no fault of their own. They are victims of abuse, neglect or abandonment. They belong to no one as they sit silently waiting for the courts to decide their future. CASA volunteers work with the judge, attorneys and social workers, as appointed officers of the court. CASAs, after review of records and personal interviews, report their findings to the courts and make recommendations to the judge regarding the best placement for the child.

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY SUPPORT

- Employee Assistance Program (EAP) Multiple and single behavioral risk factors are identified and treated by employee assistance counselors who consider the impact of personal problems on the workplace. These counselors provide service to business and industry by providing crisis management, assessment and conflict intervention, direct confidential care to employees and their dependents, as well as consultation to management. Businesses and industries are invited to design contractual agreements that serve the particular behavioral and mental health needs of their organizations.
- Veterans Support Services Authorized for treatment by the Veterans Administration, participants in this counseling readjustment opportunity are combat veterans who continue to experience extraordinary emotional responses to the pressures and stresses of daily life. Group and individual counseling sessions allow the veterans who qualify to address a wide variety of war-related readjustment challenges, thereby diminishing relationship difficulties and increasing overall family stability.

- Consultative Services The use of consultants is an option that business and industry, for-profit and not-for-profit, are using with increasing frequency. A professional team is available to provide clients with credible and hands-on experienced information to minimize barriers and pitfalls in their businesses. In addition, the team can assist in human resource training design, training delivery, and overall management support to maximize employee performance productivity.
- School Consultation Counselors provide schools with on-site and written consultation during the school year, thereby supporting teachers and supervisory staff with professional mental health services. Special student needs are identified and given individual case management and follow-up. Teacher strengths are also documented and encouraged through written evaluations to strengthen the positive overall value of this program that readies young children for success in school.
- Career Assessment People today seek validating information about themselves and about their relationship to the working world, information that will lead them to greater understanding and to better decisions about the course of their lives. With the use of a specially designed interest/personality/aptitude assessment inventory, individuals can validate or explore their career opportunities and then discuss, with their counselor, the next steps towards realizing their optimum place in the world of work.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE PREVENTION

• Drug and alcohol prevention is a program designed to help individuals prone to bring harm to themselves, their families, and to the community-at-large, through excessive use of and or dependence on various types of drugs (including alcohol) and narcotics for mental stimulation and/or relief from pain or stress. Program elements include: psychotherapy, group therapy, and family therapy, as well as consultation and training of support agencies. All treatment is provided on an outpatient basis.

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

• Family and Youth Counseling Agency, Inc. is committed to the development of its board, staff and volunteers as well as the development of professional competencies of those working with children, teenagers, adults, couples, elders, and families. The agency believes that all professionals in the field possess the ability to deliver quality services to the community and will be successful in their work when professional support is available. Family and Youth Counseling Agency coordinates satellite videoconferences, one-day workshops, and the annual Family Focus two-day conference for the human service professional.

B. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

C. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Agency have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and accordingly reflect all significant receivables, payables, and other liabilities.

D. Basis of Presentation

Financial statement presentation follows the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board in its Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 117, Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations. Under SFAS No. 117, the Agency is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

E. Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the Statements of Cash Flows, the Agency considers all unrestricted, highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

F. Donated Property and Equipment

Donations of property and equipment are recorded as support at their estimated fair value at the date of donation. Such donations are reported as unrestricted support unless the donor has restricted the donated asset to a specific purpose. Assets donated with explicit restriction regarding their use and contributions of cash that must be used to acquire property and equipment are reported as restricted support. Absent donor stipulations regarding how long those donated assets must be maintained, the Agency reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired assets are placed in service as instructed by the donor. They Agency reclassifies temporarily restricted net assets to unrestricted net assets at that time.

G. Donated Services

Donated services are recognized as contributions in accordance with SFAS No. 116, Accounting for Contributions Received and Contributions Made, if the services (a) create or enhance non-financial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by the Agency. Included in the financial statements are donated services valued at $16,590 for the Child Advocacy and CASA programs. Volunteers also provided various services throughout the year that are not recognized as contributions in the financial statements since the recognition criteria under SAFS No. 116 were not met.

H. Income Taxes

The Agency is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the Agency qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2).

I. Investments

Investments in marketable equity securities with readily determinable fair values are stated at fair market value. Donated investments are reflected as contributions at their market values at date of receipt. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets in the accompanying Statement of Activities.

J. Promises to Give

Unconditional promises to give are recognized as revenues, or gains in the period received and as assets, decreases of liabilities, or expenses depending on the form of the benefits received. Conditional promises to give are recognized when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met. At December 31, 2006, the unconditional promise to give of $428,584 was from United Way of Southwest Louisiana. These funds will be received in the year 2007 but are recorded as temporary restricted revenues for the year ended December 31, 2006 in accordance with SFAS 116, Accounting for Contributions Received and Contributions Made.

K. Restricted and Unrestricted Revenue Support

Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily unrestricted, or permanently restricted support, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restriction.

Support that is restricted by the donor is reported as an increase in unrestricted net assets if the restriction expires in the reporting period in which the support is recognized. All other donor-restricted support is reported as an increase in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the nature of the restriction. When a restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions. In the event that restricted support is received in the same period as the restriction lapses, the agency follows the practice of reporting the support as unrestricted.

L. Property and Equipment

All acquisitions of property and equipment in excess of $500 and all expenditures for repairs, maintenance, renewals, and betterment that materially prolong the useful lives of assets are capitalized. Property and equipment are stated at cost. The Agency uses straight-line depreciation.

M. Concentration of Revenue and Support

The majority of the funding for the Agency's programs is provided by the United Way of Southwest Louisiana (17%) and various federal, state, and local grants on a year-by-year basis. In addition, the Agency derives it program fees from the geographic region of Southwest Louisiana encompassing five parishes.

N. Fair Values of Financial Instruments

The Agency has a number of financial instruments, none of which is held for trading purposes. The Agency estimates that the fair value of all financial instruments at December 31, 2006 does not differ materially from the aggregate carrying values of its financial instruments recorded in the accompanying balance sheet. The estimated fair value amounts have been determined by the Agency using available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. Considerable judgment is necessarily required in interpreting market data to develop the estimates of fair value, and, accordingly, the estimates are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that the agency could realize in a current market exchange.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON COMPLIANCE AND ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

The Board of Directors Family and Youth Counseling Agency, Inc. Lake Charles, Louisiana

We have audited the financial statements of Family and Youth Counseling Agency, Inc. as of and for the year ended December 31, 2006, and have issued our report thereon dated May 11, 2007. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit, we considered the Family and Youth Counseling Agency, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Family and Youth Counseling Agency, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control over financial reporting.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the organization's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the organization's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the organization's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the organization's internal control.

Our consideration of the internal control over financial reporting was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in the internal control that might be significant deficiencies and, accordingly, would not necessarily disclose all significant deficiencies that are also considered to material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

Compliance

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether Family and Youth Counseling Agency, Inc.'s, financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grants, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

This report is intended for the information of the management, the Legislative Auditor of the State of Louisiana, federal awarding agencies and pass-through entities and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties. However, this report is a matter of public record and its distribution is not limited.
